OUR AIM:

Amplify artists' voices.

Invest in the next generation.

Develop resources and an expanded platform to elevate artists from the African Diaspora.

Inspire art accessibility.

Launch program expanding arts and culture access across Pittsburgh neighborhoods.

Broaden our reach globally.

Showcase AWAACC through exhibitions, performances, and partnerships.

TOGETHER, WE WILL SPARK THE NEXT CHAPTER OF AUGUST WILSON'S LEGACY.

Fifteen years ago, our iconic building opened its doors to the public in the Cultural District of Pittsburgh, Pa. TODAY, we are one of the largest Black multi-disciplinary arts centers in the country! Some of the greatest artists of our time have graced our stage and their artwork has lined our gallery walls.

We envision a future for AWAACC, where art and culture are both created and celebrated. We seek to inspire the imaginations of future generations of artists and arts lovers, in Pittsburgh and across the nation.

Now, we are asking YOU—our community and valued partners—to invest in our future.

Together, we will lay the groundwork to ensure our Center continues to be a resource and beacon of inspiration for all.

Your contribution will:

INVITE EVERYONE to experience art, storytelling, and exchange around the rich culture of the African American experience the African diaspora.

ENGAGE & INSPIRE school-aged children in our region with access to world-class visual, performing, and literary arts.

ESTABLISH reserve funds to maintain AWAACC as a source for culture, community, and connection for the future.

Your support speaks to the power of art to connect us all. Thank you!
