ABOUT THE PLAY

August Wilson: Joe Turner's Come and Gone

Set in Pittsburgh in 1911 during a pivotal era of migration and transformation, Joe Turner's Come and Gone centers on Seth and Bertha Holly (Cedric and Henson) who run a warm, orderly boardinghouse for those navigating uncertain paths. But when a mysterious man named Herald Loomis (Boone) arrives with his young daughter, the stillness of the house begins to shift. This timeless American classic is a profoundly moving story of personal awakening, collective memory, and the quiet power of human connection.

Golden Globe® winner Taraji P. Henson (Hidden Figures, “Empire”) makes her Broadway debut alongside Cedric the Entertainer (CBS’ “The Neighborhood”), Tony Award® nominee Joshua Boone (Skeleton Crew, The Outsiders), and Tony Award winner Ruben Santiago-Hudson (Lackawanna Blues), who return to the stage in a luminous revival of August Wilson’s Joe Turner's Come and Gone, directed by Oscar®, Emmy® and Golden Globe winner Debbie Allen (“Grey’s Anatomy,” Cat on a Hot Tin Roof).

Pricing: $600 per person (payable by check or credit card)

Includes one ticket (premium seating) to the Saturday, June 6, 2pm matinee performance of Joe Turner's Come and Gone, followed by dinner near the theater and a meet-and-greet and conversation with Tony Award nominee Ruben Santiago-Hudson and other artists to be announced.
